and, secondly, the TERMS that are granted Ages to because the profit to be made selling a book depends largely upon the anneal Dernar for such a work. Here is a notable illustration of this: From Maine to California there is the most intense desire to produce an authentic illustrated work descriptive of the remarkable career of this man, who has risen from the humblest walks of life, led the mighty armies of the Union to victory, filled for eight years the highest office in the gift of the American people, and who has for the rest two years been the honored guests of KINES. PRINCES, EMPERIORS, and STATES. MEN throughout the world. Again, there is a widespread and increasing interest in other nations, and a desire to know more of their forms of government, religious views, strange customs, etc., which renders this book peculiarly structive to the people at this time, and nence remarkably salable. Thirdly, the book itself is so elegantly gotten up and so richly illustrated (being printed on a beautifully toned and super-calendered paper; as to be a strong attraction of itself.
